July 2007

No Class July 4th & 5th

for Independence Day

Independence Day is a great day in the history of the United States and should be celebrated with Pride.

However, the celebration with fireworks can be dangerous so please be careful.

For that reason the City puts on controlled fireworks displays in many locations around the City, such as;
 ~ July 3rd Armada Baseball Game at Blair Field
 ~ July 4th Veterans Stadium

F. Y. I.; Our School's Website www.mpicomputers.com/socatkd will continue to be updated regularly with; Tae Kwon Do info. you need to know, announcements, changes in class schedule, testing and important articles, etc. Last month Mr. Dylan Vassberg, sent me A VERY IMPORTANT ARTICLE regarding "The History of Tae Kwon Do - Ancient, Modern and Present time." Don't miss it for your notebook, it's a must have...Now if you don't know what your Notebook is...ask a Senior, they are delighted to assist you any way they can.

Remember; No class this month on Wednesday, July 4th & Thursday, July 5th.

Happy Birthday this month to: Patrick C. on the 5th, Mrs. Gonzalez on the 11th, Mrs. Encalada on the 11th, Jack O. on the 16th, Monica B. on the 19th. Put another candle on your Birthday cake and may all your wishes come true.

Kid's Corner * This just in (from PROUD parents)...Last month Mr. Dylan Vassberg graduated 8th grade from Hill Classical Middle School. There were several awards given out; these were kept secret until the graduation. But they knew something was up when Dylan was sitting on the stage instead of with the rest of the class. Dylan was awarded the

American Spirit

Citation. The criterion for this award is: Demonstrating Outstanding Citizenship and a High Sense of Personal Accomplishment, In Keeping with the American Spirit & Ideals.

The recipients of this award are selected by the 8th grade teachers.

Wow! Dylan, you make US Proud...Congratulations...
